

TSC Category	Operational Control Implementation
TSC	Workplace Health Management
TSC Description	Implement control measures to measure health hazards and ensure workplace health at the workplace
TSC Proficiency Description	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5	Level 6
					WPH-WSH-5074-1.1	WPH-WSH-6074-1.1
					Control and manage occupational health hazards to ensure workplace health	Lead implementation of occupational hygiene programmes to ensure workplace health
Knowledge					<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The typical roles of occupational hygiene professionals • Acceptable occupational hygiene practices • Workplace health related legal and other requirements • Types of occupational health hazards • Route of entry into body for health hazards • Human anatomy and physiology • Target organs by hazardous substances • Types of ill health effects • Fundamentals of occupational toxicology • Information sources on occupational health hazards • Typical hazardous substances, agents and processes • Principles of Hierarchy of Control • Risk control measures • Types of methods for the measurement of health hazards • Types of hygiene standards and occupational exposure limits • Risk assessment methods 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The typical roles of occupational hygiene professionals • Acceptable occupational hygiene practices • Workplace health related legal and other requirements • Types of occupational health hazards • Route of entry into body for health hazards • Human anatomy and physiology • Target organs by hazardous substances • Types of ill health effects • Fundamentals of occupational toxicology • Information sources on occupational health hazards • Typical hazardous substances, agents and processes • Principles of Hierarchy of Control • Risk control measures • Types of methods for the measurement of health hazards • Types of hygiene standards and occupational exposure limits • Risk assessment methods

					<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Occupational hygiene programmes 	Occupational hygiene programmes
Abilities					<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Establish roles of occupational hygiene professionals in accordance with acceptable occupational hygiene practices, workplace health related legal and other requirements Analyse occupational health hazards at the workplace based on fundamentals of occupational toxicology and relevant information sources Determine the appropriate methods for the measurement of health hazards and interpret the results in accordance with relevant hygiene standards and occupational exposure limits Assess risks to persons affected by the health hazards in accordance with established risk assessment methods Support implementation of occupational hygiene programmes in accordance with organisational procedures 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review occupational health hazards identified Review and improve methods used for the measurement of health hazards and interpret the results in accordance with relevant hygiene standards and occupational exposure limits Analyse risks to persons affected by the health hazards in accordance with established risk assessment methods Drive implementation of occupational hygiene programmes in accordance with organisational procedures