A. Questions on Eligibility Criteria

1. Can an Organisation receive the SkillsFuture Employer Awards more than once?

Yes. An organisation may receive the SkillsFuture Employer Awards more than once. Organisations that have previously received the SkillsFuture Employer Awards and reapply will be evaluated according to the substantial progress made and notable outcomes achieved from their last year of conferment.

2. Can a main company and its subsidiaries apply for the SkillsFuture Employer Awards?

Yes. All Singapore-registered business entities are welcomed to apply. Parent companies and their subsidiaries should apply under their own UEN and will be evaluated based on each of their own merits as separate entities.

For example, a holding company cannot submit a single application covering all its subsidiaries under the holding company's UEN. Each subsidiary would need to apply individually under their own UEN.

3. Do I need to specify the tier of award for my Organisation during application?

No. You will be awarded either the Silver or Gold tier based on the judging criteria. SSG will confer the Platinum tier upon exceptional companies and is not awarded via the application process.

4. How does SSG decide between awarding the Silver or Gold tier?

Gold tier awardees would have made greater effort in skills development in their organisation and/or industry. Examples are having contributed to the skills development of industry and not just within their organisation and implemented the Skills Framework or equivalent.
