

FAQs for SkillsFuture (SF) Series

As at 12 December 2022

No.	Question / Answer
1.	What is SkillsFuture (SF) Series about? SF Series was launched in Oct 2017 to equip working adults with skills in eight emerging areas. In 2022, as part of SkillsFuture Singapore (SSG)'s continuous review of our programmes to ensure industry relevance, SSG refreshed the existing eight areas into four new economic growth pillars. These new pillars, which are aligned to the Whole-of-Government future economy perspective are: Digital Economy, Green Economy, Care Economy and Industry 4.0. Under the four economic growth pillars, the skills are grouped into 18 emerging domains that cluster jobs and skills trends based on priority areas under the 23 Industry Transformation Maps. The refreshed SF Series aims to equip working adults with emerging skills that can meet changing job demands as a result of industry transformation, enabling them to stay relevant and competitive for the future.
2.	How will an individual benefit from SF Series? Individuals can access affordable and quality training through SF Series to equip themselves with skills needed to meet the emerging needs for the future economy. They will also be able to find courses that cater to different levels of skills proficiency, namely beginner, intermediate and advanced, to suit their training needs.
3.	Where can prospective trainees find the list of SF Series courses available? How can they apply for the courses? The list of courses offered under SF Series and their respective training providers are published on MySkillsFuture portal (myskillsfuture.gov.sg). Interested participants can view the SF Series courses by browsing the course directory via

	4. Are there any cash incentives for participation in SF Series? No.
	5. How is SF Series different from other SkillsFuture initiatives like TESA? The SF Series and TESA serve different objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The SF Series is a series of curated work-skills related short and modular courses focusing on the four growth pillars - Digital Economy, Green Economy, Care Economy and Industry 4.0. It aims to equip working adults with emerging skills to meet changing job demands in these four growth pillars, enabling them to stay relevant and competitive for the future.</li> <li>• TechSkills Accelerator (TeSA) is targeted at providing training opportunities in the Information and Communications Technology (ICT) sector, for ICT and non-ICT professionals to develop relevant ICT skills.</li> </ul>
	6. Why did SSG revise the emerging areas? Does it mean that the previous areas (e.g. Data Analytics) are no longer relevant? As part of SSG’s regular review of the relevance and effectiveness of our schemes, the existing emerging areas for SF Series were refreshed to align to economic pillars identified to be emerging and of high growth, to allow individuals to keep pace with industry and workplace needs. Where applicable, the existing emerging areas can also be found under their relevant economic pillars – e.g. Data analytics under Digital economy.
	7. Who is eligible to sign up for courses identified under SF Series?
