

LIST OF ADULT EDUCATION FELLOWS

S/N	Adult Education Fellows
1		Professor Annie Koh <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vice President, Office of Business Development, Singapore Management University • Professor of Finance (Practice) at Singapore Management University • Academic Director of International Trading Institute and Business Families Institute at Singapore Management University Highlights: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professor Koh has been instrumental in bridging academia and the industry and has spearheaded major partnerships between Singapore Management University and the business world. • She was also behind initiatives such as the Business Advisors Programme where retrenched professionals are matched with small local enterprises for short-term consultancy stints, Foundation Training Programme to prepare fresh graduates for a career in local enterprises, and the International Trading Professional Conversion Programme where displaced mid-career professionals are re-skilled for career opportunities in the International Trading sector.

S/N	Adult Education Fellows
2		Professor Christopher Chia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professor (Practice), NUS Business School Highlights: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • During Professor Chia's chairmanship at NUS-Institute of System Science (ISS), he leveraged on his industry experience and steered NUS-ISS in shaping the future of the ICT industry. • He was inducted into the Singapore Computer Society's Hall of Fame in 2015, which honours individuals who have shaped the Infocomm & Media landscape of Singapore. • From 2004 to 2010, as Chief Executive of the then Media Development Authority of Singapore, Professor Chia was responsible for transforming Singapore into a global trusted media capital. • As the founding Chief Executive Officer of the National Library Board in 1995, he led the team to innovate its way into the future by introducing cutting-edge innovation and business processes to set up digitally-networked libraries and transform them into lifestyle destinations.

S/N	Adult Education Fellows
3		Chef Eric Teo <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Honorary President Mentor, Singapore Chef's Association • Consultant, ET Culinary Arts • Master Mentor, Asian Culinary Institute Highlights: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Chef Teo was accorded the Lifetime Achievement Award at the World Gourmet Summit 2017, an award which recognises individuals whose significant contributions over a minimum span of 15 years have led to the promotion and growth of excellence within the Food & Beverage (F&B) industry. • He was one of the chef mentors for the Singapore's Culinary Team, who was crowned the overall champion of the Culinary Olympics 2016 competition held in Erfurt, Germany, one of the most prestigious international culinary competitions in the world. • Chef Teo collaborated with the Asian Culinary Institute to help equip aspiring chefs with the necessary skills to be job-ready. He also provides career talks at various institutions such as SHATEC, to inspire and encourage students and young cooks. • From 2006 to 2013, he was a key member of then Singapore Workforce Development Agency's F&B Industry Skills and Training Council where he was involved in setting up and reviewing the F&B Singapore Workforce Skills Qualifications framework.

S/N	Adult Education Fellows
4		Associate Professor Lim Swee Hia <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Senior Director, SingHealth Alice Lee Institute of Advanced Nursing • President, Singapore Nurses Association Highlights: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Associate Professor Lim was instrumental in helping the Singapore General Hospital (SGH) obtain the Magnet Accreditation (2010) while serving as the Group Director of Nursing at SingHealth, and Director of Nursing at the SGH and National Heart Centre Singapore. It is the highest international accolade for nursing excellence and leadership, and SGH was the first in Asia to have received it. • Associate Professor Lim was also a key member of then Singapore Workforce Development Agency's Healthcare Industry Skills and Training Council since its inception in 2007, and was heavily involved in the set-up, review and expansion of the Healthcare Support Singapore Workforce Skills Qualifications framework. She played a pivotal role in establishing the SingHealth Alice Lee Institute of Advanced Learning as a Continuing Education and Training Centre for nursing professionals. • Associate Professor Lim also spearheaded a spate of initiatives to elevate the nursing profession in Singapore. Some of the initiatives include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) Skills Training Employability Enhancement for Retrenched and Unemployed Workers, and Return-To-Nursing Training Programmes for Registered and Enrolled Nurses to help

S/N	Adult Education Fellows
		retrenched/unemployed individuals and non-practising nurses to gain employment opportunities; b) Work redesign projects to expand and raise the professionalism of nursing jobs; and c) Training modules to enable nurses to expand their job role by taking on tasks with higher complexities
5		Professor Lim Yeow Khee <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Managing Director of LYK Aerospace (S) Pte Ltd • President, Singapore Institute of Aerospace Engineers • Academic Chair, Air Transport Training College Highlights: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the early 2007, as a former Chairman of the Manufacturing Generic Skills Workforce Skills Qualifications (WSQ) Validation Committee and the Aerospace WSQ Technical Sub-Committee, Professor Lim was pivotal in developing and validating the generic skills modules for the manufacturing industry, technical skills for the Aerospace industry, and developing a national skills qualification framework for the manufacturing sector. • He was heavily involved in establishing the Air Transport Training College (ATTC) in 1999 as the Professional Development Centre of the Singapore Institute of Aerospace Engineers (SIAE). In September 2007, ATTC was appointed by then Singapore Workforce Development Agency as a Continuing Education and Training (CET) Centre for the Aerospace industry and was subsequently conferred

S/N	Adult Education Fellows
		the status of a National CET Institute in 2013 to offer skills-based training for the Aerospace industry. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professor Lim also played a pivotal role in setting up the SIAE in 1975, a non-profit organisation, dedicated to aviation safety and aerospace technology, and providing aerospace professionals with opportunities to increase their knowledge and skills.