

THE EVOLVING LANDSCAPE OF Jobs and Skills

The skill demands in Singapore have been consistently changing, making it crucial for individuals to monitor these industries to maintain a competitive edge in their careers.

3 Noteworthy Skill Clusters Required in Singapore

Skill Cluster 1:

Business Management

Documentation

Write clear and concise reports

Audit and Compliance

Develop compliance processes and audit strategy

Quality Assurance

Develop and implement quality standards

Skill Cluster 2:

Data Management

Programming and Coding

Write codes to create software programmes

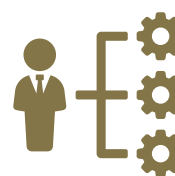

Big Data Analytics

Analyse large datasets to find patterns and trends

Applications Development

Develop applications from design specifications

Skill Cluster 3:

Production Management

Quality Assurance

Develop and implement quality standards

Continuous Improvement Management

Improve processes and procedures

Electrical Fundamentals Application

Apply electrical principles to aircraft

A look into the demands of 3 job families:

Hotel and F&B managers

Resumption of the tourism industry has increased the demands of these roles

Hotel Operations Manager

Restaurant Manager

Catering Manager

IT infrastructure and cybersecurity professionals

Increasing digitisation of businesses and the growing need to protect critical data from cyberattacks have greatly increased the demands of these roles

Data Centre Engineer

Cloud Specialist

Cyber Risk Specialist

Engineers

New areas of growth in engineering which include Industry 4.0 and sustainable engineering have increased the demands of these roles

Manufacturing Engineer

Environment Engineer

Quantity Surveyor

The study of skills compositions helps us to better understand the changes of the Singapore economy's skills landscape, so that we can adapt and align our workforce development strategies with the evolving demands of the job market.

Visit www.skillsfuture.gov.sg/skillsreport for more details.

SKILLS future SG